- Propaganda is usually repeated and spread over a wide variety of media (television, radio, internet) in order to create the chosen result in audience attitudes.
- As opposed to impartially providing information, propaganda, in its most basic sense, presents information primarily to _____ an audience.
- Propaganda often presents facts selectively (thus possibly lying by not telling the whole truth), or uses “loaded” messages to produce an _____ rather than rational (reasonable) response to the information presented.
- The desired result is a _____ of the attitude toward the subject in the target audience to further a _____ or religious agenda.

Propaganda Posters

- Propaganda posters use _____, _____, _____, and _____ to persuade people towards a specific _____ or _____.
- The images and words used in propaganda posters appeal to human _____ and _____ including pride, patriotism, guilt, shame, honor, and loyalty.

Your Initiation Task

Your goal to is persuade other teenagers to choose your Faction.

For this initiation task, you must...

1. Get into faction initiate small groups of NO MORE than 6 people.
2. In your faction initiate group, create ONE propaganda poster designed to persuade people to choose YOUR Faction.
3. Write an 8 sentence paragraph explaining what makes your poster persuasive. Which feelings did you appeal to: guilt, pride, honor, patriotism, shame, etc.? How did you appeal to these feelings?
4. Decide how you want to split up the work in your faction initiate small group... you ONLY have these two class periods to complete your poster.

These posters WILL be displayed, so do your best to convince others to join your faction!!

FACTION INITIATES WHO FAIL TO COMPLETE THIS TASK RISK FAILING INITIATION AND BECOMING FACTIONLESS

YOU DECIDE.
